

SQL JOINS questions

1. Retrieve the names of employees along with their roles.
2. List the departments along with the total number of employees.
3. List the departments along with their average salary.
4. Retrieve the names of employees in the 'Engineering' department.
5. List the employees and their roles in the 'Sales' department.
6. Find the department with the highest average salary.
7. List the roles and the number of employees in each role.
8. Retrieve the names of employees who have a role and those who do not have a role.
9. List the roles with at least 2 employees and their average salary.
10. Retrieve the names of employees and their roles sorted by role name.